A CHRONICLE OF EVENTS WITH SIDE LIGHTS ON THE MEN AND WOMEN WHO MAKE UP WASHINGTON'S COMPLEX AND INTERESTING SOCIAL LIFE

THE Secretary of the Navy and Mrs. Denby, who arrived in San Francisco from the Orient on September 1, are now enroute home. Mrs. Denby and their two children will stop at their home in Detroit for a visit before returning to Washington, but the Secretary will come direct to the Capital.

With the return to Washington about the middle of the month of the Vice President and Mrs. Coolidge and the Secretary of State and Mrs. Hughes, due here on the twenty-fifth of the month, the end of September ought to find the Cabinet just about assembled once more.

The surprising announcement of the marriage of Miss Ingeborg Wallenberg, daughter of the Swedish Minister and Mme. Wallenberg, to Ragnar Soderberg, on September 15, in Stockholm, brings to mind that a great many of our girls are being married away from home, which is a lamentable fact.

Miss Alice Harding has elected Prides Crossing for her marriage tomorrow to Robert Thompson Pell, and the recent wedding of Miss Mildred Bromwell to Captain Sidney R. Bailey, which took place way out in Michigan, was another important marriage which Washington would have liked to claim.

The Secretary of the Belgian Embassy and Mme. Graeffe have returned from New York, where Mme. Graeffe and their sons arrived Friday from Mexico City.
They have taken the house at 2112 Kalorama road.

Mr. and Mrs. Roosevelt Back From Oyster Bay.

The Acting Secretary of the Navy and Mrs. Roosevelt have returned from Oyster Bay, where they spent the week-end. Mrs.
Roosevelt has closed their home at Westover and will spend the autumn at Oyster Bay with her children. Mrs. Roosevelt will remain in Washington until September 20, before joining her children at Oyster Bay.

The Third Assistant Postmaster General, W. I. Glover, who went to Denver, Colo., last week, will return at the end of the week.

Mrs. John F. Waggaman, of this city, entertained a house party over Labor Day at her country place, Wild Rose Lodge, on South river, near Annapolis. Among her guests were her two sons and their wives and children, Capt. and Mrs. Ennis Waggaman, and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Waggaman. Captain and Mrs. Waggaman, who spent August at Eaglesmere, Pa., motored from there to Annapolis, reaching there last Thursday, and returned here yesterday and opened their house in B. street. Later in the month they will go to Atlantic City for a visit. Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Waggaman will remain at Wild Rose Lodge a week or two longer.

Other guests over the holiday were William Caldwell and Lyle Stewart, of New York; Mr. Smith and William Hurley, of this city; Miss Marie Waggaman, of Washington, and a group of midshipmen from the Naval Academy. Other guests spent Labor Day with Mrs. Waggaman.

John B. Henderson entertained at a picnic luncheon Monday at his country estate in Virginia. Among the guests were the Charge d'Affaires of the Belgium Embassy and Mme. de Selys, Mr. and Mrs. Raoul Til-mont, of the Belgium embassy, and the Charge d'Affaires of Austria and Mme. Prochank.

The commercial attaché of the Cuban legation, Mr. Bonnet, who has been spending the summer with Mrs.
Bonnet in Philadelphia, has returned to Washington and has taken apartment at the Avondale for the season. Mrs. Bonnet will not return for several weeks.

Capt. John G. White, U. S. A., and family, are at the Burlington hotel, during their stay in Washington.

Surgeon General Edward Rhodes Stitt has returned from his farm near Philadelphia, where he spent the summer with Mrs. Stitt and their daughter, Miss Mary Stitt.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Caldwell, of Minneapolis, Minn., are in Washington, and are staying at the Lee House.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Trebble and daughter, of Dubuque, Iowa, are in Washington, and are staying at the New Willard.

Return From a Trip
Through White Mountains.

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Gans have returned from a trip through the White Mountains. On their return they stopped at Springfield, Mass., and visited some friends.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Van D. Chandler, of Richmond, en route home from Deer Park, Md., are in Washington for a few days and are at the Burlington Hotel.

Receiving Congratulations on Birth of a Son.

Capt. and Mrs. Daniel S. Appleton are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son, christened Alanson Appleton, on July 18, at San Juan, Puerto Rico.

Wilmott Lewis spent several days in New York last week, and left Saturday evening for Canada, where he will be the guest of Harold Sims, attache of the British embassy, who is spending several weeks with his parents, Maj. and Mrs. A. Haig Sims at their home, Beau Rivage, in Montreal. Mr. Sims will accompany Mr. Lewis upon his return to Washington the end of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Ballou, accompanied by their daughters, have returned from New York, where they had a cottage near West Harbor for the summer, and are established at their home in LeRoy place. They made the trip by motor and during the summer spent much time touring in Canada. Mrs. Ballou's sister, Mrs. Harry C. Turner, who was her guest for the summer, will return to Washington in a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Wells, of Richmond, are in Washington, and are staying at the Lee House.

Mrs. W. S. Culbertson and daughters, Miss Junia Culbertson and Miss Jane Culbertson, are the guests of Congressman and Mrs. Samuel A.
Kendall and their daughter, Mrs.
Angus, at their summer home near Meyersdale, Pa.

Former Congressman James Francis Burke, of Pittsburgh, is at the New Willard for a few days.

Mrs. T. L. Davis and the Misses Welch, formerly of Georgia, have come to Washington to live and taken possession of their new home at 1844 Monroe street.

Lieut. Col. Hugh Matthews, U. S.
M. C., and Mrs. Matthews, have taken apartments at the Burlington Hotel.

The marriage of Miss Madeleine Bates Hoag, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Germaine B. Hoag, and Norman C. Damon, of Detroit, will take place this afternoon at the home of the bride's parents at 4407 Ninth street.

The ceremony will be performed at 3:30 o'clock by Rev. L. E. Pur-dam, who has been taking Dr. W.
A. Morgans place at Mt. Pleasant Congregational Church.

The bride, who will be unattended, will wear street costume of brown velvet trimmed in touches of burnt orange and a hat to match. She will wear a corsage of Ophelia roses and lilies of the valley.

The house will be decorated in pinks, ferns and Ophelia roses, the flowers being arranged to form an improvised altar before which the ceremony will be performed.

Mr. Damon and his bride will Miss Madeleine Bates Hoag, whose marriage to Norman C.

Damon will be an event of this afternoon.

leave during the afternoon for a motor trip to Atlantic City, New York and Buffalo and will make their home later in Detroit.

Miss Hoag has been making her home in Detroit for the past few years, but came to Washington for her wedding.

The board of patrons of the Washington Salon and United Arts Society, consisting of leading society women and prominent men, have completed arrangements for an additional free tuition French class for beginners, enrollment in which will be tomorrow evening at 7:30 o'clock at the salon's school at 1413 H street northwest. Many well known members of official and resident society are among the 300 students attending the salon's eight French classes.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Bloomer and family, of New York city, are returning from the South. They are at the Burlington Hotel for a short time.

Reade-Trenholm Wedding
Takes Place at Meadows.

The marriage of Miss Evelyn Drew Reade, daughter of Willoughby Reade, of the Episcopal high school, Alexandria, and Lee Trenholm, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. de S. Trenholm, of New York, took place near Abingdon, Va., Monday evening.

The ceremony was performed at the Meadows, in the drawing room of the home of the bride's grandfather, Capt. Frank S. Robertson, and one of the most historic places in the State, having been the residence of the late Governor Wyndham Robertson of Virginia. The Rev.

Luther Williams, rector of St.
Thomas Episcopal Church, Abingdon, officiated.

Myriads of white candles mingling with the gold and green floral decorations composed an entrancing setting. The table was set in Crown Derby, marked "Mary's Meadows," a gift to the bride's great-grandmother from her parents nearly a hundred years ago when she married the late Governor Robertson in the same drawing room where the young couple were united.

The wedding music was rendered by Miss Nannie H. Griffin, of Bedford City, Va. Little Miss Katie Robertson Motley, the bride's cousin, served as flower girl. Miss Stella Reade, the bride's sister, was the maid of honor, and Miss Mary Willoughby Reade, another sister, and Miss Jean Cunningham, of Savannah, were bridesmaids. Mrs. Robert Pollock, of Charlotte, N. C., formerly Miss Agnes Messick, of Washington, was matron of honor.

The bride, who entered the room with her father, wore heavy white satin, with a court train. The bridesmaids' dresses of orchid, green and sapphire blue harmonized with the rainbow effect of the matron of honor's gown. The bride's grandmother, Mrs. Frank Smith Robertson, wore a black velvet gown trimmed in old lace and jet, while Mrs. Trenholm, the bridegroom's mother, wore black satin with iridescent sparkles of black and blue.

Taswell Taylor, Jr., of Norfolk, was Mr. Trenholm's best man.

The ceremony was attended by Mrs. Conally F. Trigg, of Abingdon; Mr. and Mrs. Wyndham B. Robertson, of Plasterco, Va.; Miss Gay Blackford, Mrs. Philip H. Minis, of New York; Miss Kathleen Penn, of Abingdon; Miss Kathleen Penn, of Los Angeles; Mrs. W. de S. Trenholm, Willoughby Reade, Frank Reade, Robert Pollock, of Charlotte; Capt. Frank S. Robertson, Miss Katie Robertson, Dr. and Mrs. Coleman Motley, Louis Cornick, Mrs.
Luther Williams and Mr. and Mrs.
Frank White, of Washington State.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Whiting, of Chicago, are spending a few days at the New Willard.

Paris Deaf Mutes Take Parts in Theatricals

PARIS, Sept. 5.—Deaf mutes who have learned to speak performed one of Moliere's most celebrated plays, "Le Medecin Malgre Lui," at the Deaf and Dumb Institute of Paris last week. The voices of the mutes were a bit harsh but could be heard throughout the house.
